ALL IN: For the City | Donation Drive

As part of our ALL IN: For the City initiative, we're partnering with the Mehala Isadora Miller (MIM) Foundation for its third annual It Takes A Village event, Christmas in Brooklyn! Together, we're supporting over 200 mothers, children and families, including women ages 18–84, through food distribution, health screenings, children's activities, toy giveaways and more. We're also collecting diapers and cash gift cards to support individuals and families in need.
